VOL. III. RALEIGH, N. C., MONDAY, MAY 25, 1868. NO. 246.

DAILY SENTINEL.

WM. E. PELL, Proprietor.

THE NEW REGIME.

It is understood that the Committee of Managers, which, as a secret inquisition, sits daily in the Capitol, with Gen. Butler at the head, has used its power to coerce the production of the deposit accounts of various individuals at one of the banks in this city. Bank books are said to have been inspected, not in a court, not in an open committee-room, not even before the packed star chamber as a whole, but privately and alone, at dead of night, by this Butler—a man whose very name is an adjective stronger than any we could employ. How far this prying investigation was extended none can tell, nor to how many of the opponents of Radicalism the indignity of an inspection of their private business was offered. Such a practice as this trampies not only on every private right, but it is in the highest sense annoying and injurious to the business portion of the community. Once tolerated and endured here, the outrage will be extended to other cities, and made the vehicle of corrupt or malicious proceeding by Radicals towards their Conservative rivals in business, and even to wards each other.

This matter involves very serious reflection for our whole business community, and it behooves them to consider what steps they shall take to protect themselves against a practice so monstrous.

How far is this to extend? By whom are the spies and menial servants that dog Senators, private gentlemen, and even women, paid? Does it come from the Federal Treasury, or from the Grant electioneering fund, or from the booty of New Orleans? The people want light. They want to know by what authority all the despatches, public and private, sent from this city on Friday last, have been seized and laid before this committee. If the despatches of Friday are not sacred, then those of the past month, or twelve months—nay, all those sent or to be sent in any city of the Union, are the pleasure and property of the honorable managers, with the prying Butler at their head. And if all despatches are to be subject to Butler's examination, censorship and approval, then why not also the mails? Are letters to be deemed sacred? While we write we feel no assurance that to the infamy already known, this baseness, so hostile to the spirit of our people, has not been added.

It is impossible not to recognize in the proceedings thus far the footprints of one whose rule in New Orleans has gained him a bad reputation wherever men are taught to abhor what is vile, cruel and mean.—Are we to have the practices of one who was repudiated by all men of genuine courage revived and made a permanent feature in the government of the country? Are we to have the espionage upon ladies, and dastardly references to them in the public press, followed up by a fresh Order No. 49, emanating with the attestation of the managers, and asserted in "the name of all the people?" Let us know; for the time may speedily come when the people, whose authority is thus forged and whose liberties are thus outraged, will apply a sure and certain remedy? Is this New Orleans of 1862, and is Butler in command.—National Intelligencer.

WADE'S VOTE FOR HIMSELF.

Of a considerable portion of the Republican press, even including some journals which have thought public opinion a proper means of influence upon the Court of Impeachment, it is but just to say that they stigmatize in fitting terms the indecency of Senator Wade's vote, being a judge, to make himself President.

The Constitution of the United States, in one case exactly similar to his, and the statutes of every State in the Union, expressly exclude from the judgment-seat the Judge who, by having a personal interest in the result of his decision, may possibly be biassed to injustice towards any suitor.—The slight and feeble interest which a judge might have in his law partner's winning a sixpenny suit is yet enough to prohibit his sitting on the bench; and so on through the higher grades of interest and possible bias. It is not sufficient that this bias would in the majority of cases be counteracted by the dividing mind of a just judge. It is sufficient that the bias might survive in the mind of the most honest, and would be a bribe to a dishonest, judge.

Senator Wade, sitting as a Judge in the Court of Impeachment, even if well-intentioned, could give no sufficient security to the respondent, to the Court, to the country, to himself, that his mind should be discharged of the great bias arising from his interest in the result. Than the Presidency with its wide powers and its exalted station there could be no more effectual bribe to the mind of a Judge not perfectly upright.

Senator Wade accepted the bribe, voted in his own interest, and ends his political career in the contempt and indignation of all just men.—N. Y. World.

A BIT OF ROMANCE—PUMP WATER AND LOVE.—Dr. E. O. Guerrant, a gallant officer who served in the Confederate army as Adjutant General in West Virginia, was married on the 12th. instant to Miss Mary J. Duvalt, of Leesburg, Tenn. The Doctor and his fair bride are now stopping at the Louisville Hotel, being en route to their future home, in Mt. Sterling, Ky. In connection with this marriage a comrade in arms of the Doctor relates the following pleasing little romance:

"In the midst of a terrific battle near Leesburg, in which the shot and shell were flying through the air like a hail storm, the Doctor and Captain J., his companion, rode up to a house on the roadside and called for a drink of water, being almost famished with thirst. A charming young lady furnished the cooling beverage from a pump in the yard, and, with one of her sweetest smiles, spoke a few words of good cheer to the war-worn soldiers battling in the sacred cause of the South.

It was not until the following day that Captain J. ascertained that his friend the Doctor had been seriously wounded in the region of the heart. That smiling face and those cheering words spoken by the lovely maiden who gave them the drink of water sent a dart from Cupid's bow, more potent than a five years' courtship, into the tenderloin of the Doctor's affections. He told Captain J. that if he lived "until this cruel war was over" he would go back to that house by the roadside and get another drink of water, even at the cost of entering the ranks of the "Benedicts."

It is unnecessary to add that he kept his word. Not satisfied with the Good Samaritan's drink, however, he robbed Tennessee of one of her most fascinating and accomplished daughters, who is now his wife, as above intimated. This is another evidence of the beneficial results of pure cold water."

HOME-MADE ICE.—The New Orleans Bulletin gives an interesting account of how ice is made in that city. It says: "You may stand in the sun, with the perspiration pouring from your forehead, a silk umbrella in your hand, perhaps, to protect you against the heat, and at the same time look upon ice and snow forming within twenty feet of you the same as though you were standing in a valley and looking at the snow-clad top of a mountain. By a chemical process, too lengthy and too scientific to describe to the general reader, a large basin of water strongly impregnated with salt to keep it from freezing is deprived of its caloric and reduced to a temperature below the freezing point. Into this basin are inserted cases made of tin, air and water tight at the bottom and sides, filled with water; these cases are covered on top, and in less than two minutes the water inside is frozen, and you may take out a cake of ice, some three inches thick, twelve inches wide, and three inches long. The rapidity with which the water is congealed gives the ice a milky appearance, and hence some persons have been led to believe that the ice contained ammonia, and was not pure. The truth is that the water used for the manufacture of this ice is Mississippi River water, pumped a long distance from shore, and then distilled; hence the purest kind of water; and as it does not in any way mix with the water impregnated with salt, and to a limited degree with ammonia, the ice manufactured is of the purest kind imaginable. There are now two machines in operation capable of making each twelve tons of ice per day, and four more machines are in process of erection. The company can now furnish ice at the rate of three-fourths of a cent per pound, and if the people will only patronize the establishment, the price can be reduced to one-half of a cent per pound.

THE WEEKLY SUN.

THE CIRCULATION OF THE "WEEKLY SUN," always very large, has of late so increased that it may be called universal. It is shedding its light for all, in all sections—North, East, South and West. Its intercourse with the South, which was necessarily interrupted during the war, has been again resumed, and the evidences of public appreciation from that quarter are multiplying every day. When honest efforts are put forth, as in the "Weekly Sun," to meet the demand for a reliable weekly record of events and an entertaining vehicle of light literature, which, while it instructs and pleases, aims to promote virtue as well as intelligence and to exclude every line of an impure and immoral tendency, it is cheering to receive such evidences of public appreciation as are coming to us from all parts of the country.

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION.

The "WEEKLY SUN" is published every Saturday at the following exceedingly low rates to individuals and clubs when sent from one Post Office. The money, in all cases, to be remitted in advance.

Club of twelve copies, one year	15 00

The Bankrupt Act.

We have been requested to publish the Bankrupt Law. This is impossible. It makes a voluminous volume. In order, however, that our readers may understand it, and may therefore not be liable to be imposed upon by parties, who are indifferent to the interests of others, we have taken some pains to compile from several sources the following general principles of the Act, for the benefit of all who contemplate seeking its aid; to determine hastily what they will do, until they have had the counsel of a respectable and intelligent Attorney, upon whom they can rely.

1. The manifest design of the Bankrupt Law is to benefit honest, but unfortunate, debtors, whose just liabilities are greater than they can pay.

2. To become a voluntary bankrupt under this Act, the debtor must owe at least $300, which, of course, he is not able to pay in full.

3. Petitioners under the Bankrupt Act are required to render a schedule of all their debts and liabilities, of every kind and description whatever, and also an inventory of all their estate, both real and personal, including all property and effects of which they are possessed, or in which they may have an interest, (though not in possession) in conformity with certain "Forms" prescribed in the "General Orders" of the Supreme Court of the United States. These schedules, verified by the oath of the petitioner before a U. S. Commissioner, must accompany the petition and, when filed, in the commencement of proceedings in Bankruptcy. If it should be found out, pending the proceedings at any time before the bankrupt is discharged, that he has, by any shift or subterfuge, made a false or partial schedule, this would be evidence of fraud and would defeat his discharge.

4. When the petition is by a firm or copartnership, a full set of schedules of the respective estates of the members of the firm should also be added.

5. When the petition is filed, the case is immediately referred to a Register, who examines the petition and schedules annexed thereto, and if they are correct in form, makes a certificate to that effect, to be filed with the Clerk, then adjudges the debtor a Bankrupt and issues a warrant to the messenger to summon all the creditors named in the petitioner's schedules to meet at the Register's office, at a certain time and place, to prove their claims and elect one or more Assignees to take charge of the Bankrupt's estate.

6. A creditor can, however, prove his claim at any time previous to the last dividend, which will generally be six months subsequent to the adjudication of Bankruptcy.

7. No creditor has any standing in a Bankrupt Court until he proves his claim.

8. Creditors have no right to compel the Bankrupt to answer questions concerning the disposal of property or him acquired subsequent to making a petition in Bankruptcy. In other words, the date of the filing of the petition by or against a debtor, is the date at which, if adjudication of bankruptcy follows, the old order of things passes away and a new leaf is turned over. On this point decisions have been variant. The safe rule appears to be, that the applicant in Bankruptcy has a perfect right to claim whatever he has made after his application, by his personal exertions, but any profits he may have made from investment or credit, may be liable to the claim of the receiver up to almost the period of his discharge.

9. The Bankrupt can apply to the Court at any time after the expiration of six months, and within one year from the adjudication, for the discharge in bankruptcy, and in case no assets come into the hands of the assignee, or no debts be proved against his estate, at any time after the expiration of sixty days.

10. As soon as an Assignee is elected or appointed, the Judge or Register will convey to him, by deed of assignment, all the bankrupt's property except what is exempted, viz: "Household and kitchen furniture and other necessaries not exceeding in value ($500) five hundred dollars; also his wearing apparel and that of his wife and children, and such other property not included in the foregoing as is exempted from levy and sale upon execution or other process by the laws of the State in which the bankrupt resides, to an amount not exceeding that allowed by State exemption laws in force in 1864. A safe "Counsel" suggests, under this head, that the common impression that persons may become bankrupts and yet be allowed to retain their houses and lands, or other property of considerable value, is a great mistake. Under the Act, no honest Bankrupt in this State can have allowed to him, free from the operation of the Act, exceeding $700, besides the use wearing apparel of himself and family. Bankrupts in this State are not entitled to homesteads under the Act.

11. It is the duty of the assignee, within twenty days after the assignment to him is made, to allot to the bankrupt such articles as are exempted, and file an inventory of the same with the value of each article so allotted, and creditors may cause objections to the report of the Assignee at any time within twenty days after it is filed.

12. As to costs in bankruptcy proceedings, section 46 of the Bankrupt Act provides that the petitioner, before a warrant issues, shall deposit fifty dollars with the Register, or with the Clerk, to be delivered to the Register as a security for his fees. General order XXIX provides that the fees of the Register, Marshal and Clerk shall be prepaid or secured before they can be compelled to act. It is also provided by General order XXX, that where the debtor has no means, and can prove the fact to the satisfaction of the Court, upon application, an order will be made requiring the costs in the case to be paid out of the fifty dollars deposited with the Register. If, however, there are assets, but not enough to pay the Messenger after deducting the Bankrupt's exempted property, so that nothing comes into the hands of the Assignee, the fees will have to be paid by the latter; but if the Assignee receives assets, the fees of the Messenger will be paid by him before any dividend is made among creditors.

13. Some suppose that the Register is entitled to $20 fee. The fees of the Register, Messenger, Clerk, and costs of publication of notices in Bankruptcy, are fixed by law, and if they demand higher fees, they are liable, as in other cases of malfeasance in office. In ordinary cases of Bankruptcy, the fees may amount to $100. In some cases more, in some less—the costs depending on the amount of labor and litigation involved in each case.

14. Differences of opinion among Attorneys have existed in this State, as to the limit which the Act makes as to the time to make application in Bankruptcy. Some have supposed that no debtor will be permitted to apply for Bankruptcy after some early day in March, unless he is able to pay fifty per cent of his debts. We are assured that this is not the case. The law did not go into operation for the purposes for which it was enacted until June 1st, 1867. It gives twelve months from that time to all honest debtors, whatever may be the extent of their indebtedness which they cannot pay in which to present their applications. After the 1st of June next, every debtor must be able to pay fifty per cent of his indebtedness in order to a successful application in bankruptcy, unless he first obtain the consent of a majority of his creditors.

COST OF CRIME.

The strong moral influence exerted upon our people by Christianity, by the restraints of discipline and the enforcement of the law, before the war, made the cost of administering justice in North Carolina comparatively very small. In no State in the Union was crime so seldom committed, and nowhere was justice so speedily administered, at so small a cost, as in North Carolina. Our whole Court system was so simply arranged, and so well understood by our people, that no one, apprehended for crime, expected, at least ordinarily, to evade the law. It worked admirably, without oppressing any one.

At present the case is far different.—Crime has increased at least ten-fold, and our old regime has been so essentially changed, under military rule, that not only is crime more common, (a natural result of the peculiar management of the blacks under the administration of the Bureau and the military,) but many guilty parties, even of high crimes, among the blacks go unpunished. Hence crime, instead of being checked, is increased among the freedmen. Crime among the whites, we admit, has neither grown less nor been overlooked under military rule. Cases occurring between whites and blacks, when there has been any semblance of wrong on the part of the whites, have been carefully criticized and promptly investigated, and frequently severely punished. While this course has had a restraining influence in some cases upon the whites, no doubt, the contrary course towards the blacks has in many cases emboldened them to commit offences of various kinds.

In this state of things, the question of cost for the punishment of crime becomes a serious matter. Under ordinary circumstances, the cost of the administration of justice, under the system of the Courts and the Judiciary provided for by the new Constitution, will be vastly increased, but if crime and litigation among the blacks are not speedily and largely checked, the cost of administering the law will become enormous.

Our criminal dockets throughout the State, in those Counties where there are many negroes, have been crowded for the last three years,—so much so, that civil suits have been necessarily prolonged or compromised. Nineteen out of every twenty of the cases relate to crime among the blacks. Besides this, feeling their importance and determined to imitate white people, they are getting up cases of litigation of the most trivial kinds between each other, which will become a wide-spreading evil, and vastly increase the petty business of our Courts.

We have not been forward to publish the many instances of crime, serious or trivial, which are daily occurring in the State, because such publications seem to increase, rather than lessen, the meaner phases of human nature. We refer the reader to another column, to-day, as a proof of the spread of crime among the blacks in the State, compiled from our State exchanges by yesterday's mail. The tendency among them to get out from the society, the employment and the discipline of the whites—to become isolated from the white race, in order to feel really free,—is operating badly upon them. In those communities where they especially congregate, away from the influence of the whites, the tendency strongly sets in favor of barbarism. Indifference to the marriage relation, concubinage, neglect of children, almost incurable idleness, extreme poverty, and stealing to support nature, abound.—Great apathy and aversion to steady labor and employment, and an effort to eke out a precarious existence by getting "little jobs," fishing, &c., prevail to an alarming extent, throwing them entirely upon the charity or the neglect of the goverament and the public. Is it any wonder, then, that crime abounds and that the cost is enormous?

THE MANAGERS' INVESTIGATION.—Haynau Butler, the stealer of spoons, the defamer of women, and the suborner of perjury, got more than he bargained for when he summoned Col. Cooper, the President's private Secretary, before the Managers of Impeachment, with a view to nosing out bribery on the part of the President and venality on the part of the "recreant" Senators. Col. Cooper testified, it seems, that the only corruption that he knew of was, that he was approached by a brother-in-law of Senator Pomeroy, who proposed, for forty thousand dollars, to secure five votes for acquittal,—Senators Morton and Nye, and, we presume, Pomeroy himself, being of the number!

This development is said to have fallen like a bomb-shell in the ranks of the party of "moral ideas." Senator Pomeroy will publish a "statement," it is said, and it is further intimated that the proposition was but a trap to catch the President's friends. This does not help the matter. A proposition of such a character, with such a purpose, made in the interest of Radical Senators, is no less infamous and base than a bona fide proposition of venality would have been! Honest men can see no difference. What would have been thought of such a thing in the palmy days of the American Senate,—the day of Clay, Webster, Calhoun, Mangum, Wright and Badger!

THE WILMINGTON Journal says that neither Abbott, Galloway, Ashley, Estes, Mann or Schenck, (all Yankees but Galloway and Price, who are negroes,)—all of whom have been elected to prominent office, legislative or local, in New Hanover,—have ever listed or paid one cent of State or County taxes, NOR EVEN A POLL-TAX, in that County. Comment is unnecessary.

NORTH CAROLINA AT CHICAGO.—Possibly, somebody may feel a curiosity to know who, hailing from North Carolina, whether of it or not, figured at the Radical National Convention at Chicago. For the gratification of that curiosity, we will state that W. R. Myers, of Charlotte, was on the Committee of Permanent Organization; Gen. L. G. Estes (squatter) was on the Committee on Resolutions; F. F. French (squatter) was on the Business Committee; old General Dockery was one of the Vice Presidents and Jo. Holden was a Scribe.

Daddy Kowles was there and made his mark, as he always does wherever he goes. Not having been provided for on any of the Committees, or in any of the honorary positions, it appears, from the proceedings, that he felt it incumbent on himself to say something, in order that it might be known that the President of the late Konstitooshional Konvenshun was on hand, "alive and kicking." It would seem, too, that he recognized the necessity, in view of his late parliamentary experience, and in order that it might be the more distinctly known who and whence he was, of making a motion, that should exhibit, at once and unmistakably, his knowledge of legislative precedences.—And thusly he did it:

A Mr. Barker, of New York, from the Committee on Order of Business, reported the rules.

A Mr. Van Zandt, of Rhode Island, offered a motion to modify one of them; and

A Mr. Bartholomew, of Pennsylvania, moved to amend the motion in some way; when

Daddy Kowles moved to lay the motion and the amendment on the table; but (the proceedings state) "he withdrew it, on learning from the Chair, that this would take the entire report of the Committee!"

We blush for the memory of the Konstitooshional Konvenshun. Just to think that the President thereof, after presiding over it for two months with such consummate ability, should have been squelched in such a summary manner by the mere tyro President of a political assemblage! Oh! Kalvis.

THE CARPET-BAGGERS.—As vermin once filled the land of Egypt, so do the carpet-baggers fill the South. A St. Louis paper of a late date says:

"From this city alone, there has gone forth a full battalion of needy adventurers to try their fortunes in the new dominion of Niggerdom. In every instance these men were played out at home—unable to obtain a livelihood here, except by a resort to honest labor, to which they were greatly averse, and so desperately badly off in points of moral character as to make their removal from our midst a cause for hearty rejoicing."

The paper from which we quote gives the names and sketches the character and antecedents of some of the most prominent of these unprincipled mercenaries. It appears that most of them have been on both sides. That paper adds:

"We doubt not that nine-tenths of the men now obtaining political positions throughout the South, are just such stuff as the above named—men of few years and small calibre, utterly void of principle, and of questionable standing.

And this is Radical policy, Radical reconstruction!"

THE CHICAGO PLATFORM.—We defer comment upon the Platform of the Radical Convention at Chicago, until we shall have seen it in a more authentic form than that of a telegraphic synopsis. Judging from appearances, nothing was ever more infamous, demagogical and cowardly than the resolution on the subject of suffrage. The text of it, as we gather it from the telegram, is: Negro suffrage is right for the South, because it is distasteful to white "rebels;" it is wrong for the North, unless the people of the North choose to have it, and they have the right to decide that matter. The Constitutional right of regulating suffrage for themselves belongs to the States of the North, but not to those of the South! All this will be righted one of these days!

THUS FAR the Radical Congressional nominees in Virginia are all Yankees. In the packed caucuses, so ingeniously manipulated by the carpet-baggers, neither a negro or a Virginia white Radical has stood the slightest chance. In two of the Districts, however, there are independent negro candidates, and we hope that they may be elected. A little touch of negro equality on the floors of Congress would be well for those, who have just declared, in Convention at Chicago, that negro suffrage is good enough for the South, but that the people of the North needn't have it, unless they want it,—and they have very conclusively demonstrated, in all their elections, that they will not have it.

KARL SCHURZ.—This turbulent Socialist and Jacobin was the temporary Chairman of the Chicago Convention. As the Richmond Dispatch observes, he is a fit representative of the Radicals. A red Republican leader of the crazy incendiaries who set Europe in a blaze in 1848, this fire-brand can find no place in any party on that Continent; none but the lunatic adherents of Mazzini would tolerate him as an associate. He has been forced to come to this country, where he finds a plenty of congenial brethren in that party, which is endeavoring to uproot from among us all the principles of common morality and constitutional law.

BLATHER AND BUNCOMBE.—If there was any one single sailor at the Soldiers' and Sailors' Convention at Chicago he ought to have been on his ship, and if there was there any single soldier now in the United States service it would have been more to his credit to have been at his post. But there was probably neither soldier nor sailor there, as the people understand it; there was no man there who was of great account in the field or at sea during the war. It was a Convention of old case-hardened politicians, some of whom, it is true, thrust themselves into uniforms while the war was in progress, just as they change party always to keep in the current. Their rant and twaddle would hardly be worthy of note, it is so much in their usual style, except that it seems more than commonly disgusting by comparison with the heroic character that these artful dodgers just now assume.—N. Y. Herald.

The report that Gov. Brownlow is dying is contradicted by a Knoxville dispatch.

CRIME IN NORTH CAROLINA.

A DARING PIECE OF INCENDIARISM.—On the night of the 15th. inst., the Tobacco Barn of Col. S. S. Royster, of this County, was destroyed by fire, the work of an incendiary. It contained the entire crop of Col. R., with the larger portion of Mr. W. D. Royster's. Twenty-three negroes were interested in it. There were also in it two wheat Reapers.

Two negro women, Natty and Jane Bullock, have been arrested and bound over to our next Superior Court, in the sum of $500 each, good circumstantial evidence being had of their guilt. Others are supposed to be implicated.

The loss sustained by this fire will reach $6,000, and we fear will prove quite embarrassing to Col. R. We hope the guilty parties may be caught and they ought to be hung. Such punishment as this is the only way to stop the wholesale arson and larceny that is now rampant over the land. Nothing is safe from the hands of the rogue and incendiary. If the law does not sufficiently punish, as to prevent it, it will become incumbent upon the people to take the law into their own hands, and deal with all cases as they may deserve. Something must be done to put a stop to it.—Henderson Ind.x

CHILD MURDER—A HORRIBLE CASE.—On Friday morning last, a jury of inquest was held in this place over the body of a dead child, found on that day on what is known as the Ruscoe lot, below the Masonic Hall. From the evidence before the jury, the following facts were elicited:—That a negro woman named Margaret Cash, living in one of the small rooms west of Masonic Hall, sometime during the Friday night or Saturday morning before the child was found, had given birth to a child; that it had been delivered in the stable, on the lot, and that, with perhaps assistance, the mother had killed the child in the stable and covered it up with some loose manure and litter, from which place it had been dragged by a dog, who, after eating the body, attempted to remove the remainder to a distance; that in crossing the field with it in his mouth, he was discovered by a negro woman, who caused him to drop it.

The body, from what was left of it, (one arm and the entrails gone,) showed that the child had reached full maturity, that it had been strangled, (a strong string being tightly tied around the neck,) and that its skull had been crushed—literally beaten into a jelly. Near the place from where the dog had dragged the body, marks were found on a sill of the stable indicating that the child had been taken by the feet and struck at least one violent blow, which crushed the skull, and which of itself was sufficient to kill it.

On Monday morning of this week, Margaret had an examination before justices H. A. Crawford and Jno. Coppedge, (her condition not admitting of a trial before,) and, in view of the evidence, the magistrates deemed it their duty to commit her to jail to await trial at the next term of our Superior Court.—Wadesboro Argus.

MILL BURNED.—A mill, running two sets of stones, one flour and the other grist, in fine condition, situated on Lane's Creek, in Union county, about four miles from White's Store, and on the road to Monroe, was fired on Sunday night week, (the 10th inst.,) and consumed with nearly all its contents—some three or four thousand pounds of flour, and several lots of wheat and corn, belonging to persons in the neighborhood. Three negroes, Ned White and his two sons, Martin and Isham, have been arrested and committed to Union jail at Monroe, the two last charged with being the incendiaries, and the father to being an accessory. It seems that after the mill was burned a lot of flour was found in the neighborhood in the bushes, and the parties finding it kept watch to see who came after it. The night after the fire the boys came with several mules and horses, taken without permission from some of the citizens in the neighborhood, and began to remove the flour, when the party in hiding sprung upon them. They ran, and, refusing a summons to halt, they were fired upon, and one of them wounded and brought down, and soon after the other was captured. They claim that their father was not a party to the burning of the mill—that he knew nothing of the fire until the mill was destroyed, but that he consented to receive and hide the flour they had taken from it. They charge that they were instigated by a white man to do the deed, not to rob, but to fire the mill, and that they removed the flour after it was fired, thinking it a pity so much flour should be destroyed.—Wadesboro Argus.

CATTLE SLAYING, &c.—Last week, four negroes, three formerly the property of Dr. C. Watkins, and the other of the late Joel Tyson, were arrested near Ansonville, charged with killing cattle and appropriating the "beef." Some of the meat was found in the possession of all of them. Upon the evidence of one of the negroes, the three others were sent to jail (Albemarle) to await trial here at the next court. The cattle killed belonged to G. B. Threadgill, present Sheriff, Dr. H. W. Robinson, and William P. Little, of Ansonville.

Hardly a week passes but we hear of some one losing cattle, sheep or hogs in this section. And such has been the case ever since the war closed, until the thing has become so common that we hardly deem the reports items of news for our paper. The consequence of this reckless stealing is, that hundreds who heretofore had surplus bacon of their own raising to sell, are now purchasers of meat raised in the Western part of this State, or from the North, for their own and family use. So it is with beef and mutton. Neither of those articles are now offered for sale in this market, especially of the latter, which, a short while back, was generally at this season almost glutted with it.—Wadesboro' Argus.

HIGHWAY ROBBERY.—Bill Smith, a negro, stopped a wagon, belonging to Col. W. C. Smith, in charge of a small white boy, on Monday last, below Lilesville, and took therefrom a bag of meal and piece of bacon. Bill was brought to this town and committed for his appearance to court—his father being surety. This looks almost like giving Bill license to steal again.—Wadesboro Argus.

MR. GRIMES.—Senator Grimes' condition continues delicate, and, with a view of making a long stay at home, he has ordered his books and documents at the capital to be packed up and forwarded to Iowa.—Some of the impeachers seem to believe that the loss of his vote to the side of the President will enable conviction to be carried, but such is not the fact, as even with Mr. Grimes absent it will require thirty-six votes to convict.

THE BEGINNING.—We learn that the University of South Carolina will be closed after the present session. The Baptist Theological Seminary at Greenville, in the same State, is to be removed to some other State.—Charlottesville Chronicle.

TO LAND OWNERS.

HAVING BEEN APPOINTED, BY THE AMERICAN AGRICULTURAL AND MINING LAND COMPANY, Agent for all that part of North Carolina lying east of and including Catawba County, I am authorized to say, to any person or persons having 10,000 acres in one body, partially cleared and near a Rail Road, that if they will subdivide their lands the Company will purchase alternate lots at their assessed value for taxation or as ascertained by two disinterested parties, paying for the same in the Company's stock—the Company obligating itself to place a white settler on every 200 acres, so acquired, within three years, or, failing to do so, such land unsettled to revert to the original owner; the owner to retain possession until the land is settled.

The object of this system is to bring into the State an industrious and thrifty population and to enhance the value of our lands. It has been adopted in other States and is said to be working finely.

This Company was chartered by our Legislature of 1866. Land owners will please address me for particulars at Reidsville, N. C.

MISS CARNCROSS' DANCING SCHOOL.—The pleasing exhibition by the pupils of this School will be repeated, this evening, at Tucker Hall. See announcement in our advertising columns.

MAYOR'S COURT, (SATURDAY.)—Charles Alston, Ralph Alston and Brister Alston, negroes, charged with stealing a dry cow hide from R. S. Tucker, were up before his Honor and returned to the County Court.

THIEF STOPPED.—For several nights, Mr. E. O. Macy, who resides in the Western part of the city, and always has a good garden, has been molested by worthless, lazy scamps, stealing his vegetables. A thief was a little disconcerted, a few nights ago, by the sharp tick of a snapping pistol, and on Friday night last, while he or another was making a trial of Mr. M's. onions and potatoes, bang went off a well charged piece. The fellow brought a shrill groan, but left in quick time, and has not been heard from since. Rogues are admonished to be careful in their unlawful peregrinations in that part of the city. The people there believe in shooting irons.

MEMORIAL CEMETERY.—Photographic views of this beautiful spot may be obtained at the Bookstore of Williams & Lambeth, of this city. They are sold for the benefit of the Association, at the moderate price of twenty-five cents each.—Album size.

NEW MUSIC.—We are indebted to the publishers, Messrs. Oliver Ditson & Co., of Boston, for several peices of new music: Songs.—"Jennie Lee," by Blampher; "Warning to parents, or the lamentation for Peter Gray," and "Sweet were the scenes of my childhood." Instrumental,—"Nymphs of the Fountain," by Richards, 'Billiard Galop,' by Barrett;" and "Corn flower Waltz," by Kinkel.

A CALL FOR RELIEF.—Mr. B. H. Hearne, of Greenville, Pitt Co., in a letter to the Editor of the Tarboro' Southerner, makes an appeal to the public in behalf of the family of the late Riddick Carney, of Pitt Co., whose sad end, and the destruction of his house and property by fire, were recently announced. Mr. Carney and his son were killed, and his wife and daughters escaped, losing their clothing and shelter. Mr. H. describes them as in a helpless and destitute condition, and begs that those who are disposed to relieve them will send contributions, either in money, provisions or clothing, to him at Greenville, and he will see that they are properly applied.

STATESVILLE AMERICAN.—We were pleased to receive a call, on Friday last, from our veteran co laborer, E. B. Drake, Esq., of Statesville, Editor of this most excellent and efficient weekly advocate and defender of Constitutional liberty and of the rights of white, as well as of black, men. We were glad to learn that the American was doing well and that the labors of our cotemporary are appreciated. The American is located in a fine section and is a good medium of advertising.

RUTHERFORD VINDICATOR.—Our friend Shotwell advised us of a visit about now, but his editorial duties have prevented, so we take the will for the deed. He is editing a sprightly Weekly at Rutherfordton, and will keep his Radical opponents on the qui vive. Our merchants, in the seaport towns especially, will find the Vindicator a good advertising medium.

STRAWBERRIES—ENTERPRISE.—There is a Strawberry bed near Goldsboro', we learn, covering three-fourths of an acre. The fruit is shipped to Baltimore. It is placed in little pint baskets, made of wood.

Ninety baskets are placed in a slat box, about the size of an ordinary trunk. The freight is about a dollar. They leave Goldsboro at 10½ o'clock, A. M., and reach Baltimore next morning at 7 A. M. They bring a fine price—better than cotton.

IT IS PROPOSED to hold a meeting in Goldsboro', to-morrow evening, (Tuesday,) of all the elements opposed to Radicalism.

How to Grow Rich!—If we could answer this question, to the practical satisfaction of the public, we have no doubt we should get a premium. How to make money, so as to acquire riches speedily, is the all-absorbing question of this age. Too many, we fear, have tried it by following the advice of the father, who said to his son: "My son, the world owes you a living; if you can get it honestly, do so; but if you cannot, why get it."

The failure of many to grow rich has now been reduced to a mere struggle for bread. This may seem to be a hard fate, yet it must be endured until it is cured. How shall it be done? Work, hard work, is the thing. Let it be the rule to be at it early and keep at it. Be sober, be honest, but keep out of debt—to the printer, especially, and to all others. Spend less than you make and never go in debt. That is the secret of getting rich in one line. If you can make one cent over your expenditures the first day, and double it the next, and go on doubling for every day, except Sunday, for ten years, you will be a rich man. Make the calculation. Try it even for one year. Nay, suppose you save one cent the first day, and double it the next, and so on doubling and saving for only twenty six working days, and you will be worth $671,088,64, at the end of the month!!

DRIED FRUIT.—We published, some days ago, an important article from Messrs. J. B. Hunter & Co., of Portsmouth, Va., on the best method of preparing dried fruit for market. As this is becoming an important item of trade, we call attention to that article. The drying of black-berries, alone, is a matter of very considerable interest to our poor country women, and they ought to be encouraged in it generally. Our merchants throughout the State ought to notify them of their readiness to purchase, and ought to be prepared to give all the necessary information. Those who engage in fruit drying must recollect that the fruit is to be dried and not baked. Extensive arrangements ought to be made for drying in the sun, and, when removed to a house, by a dry heat. It would be a useful thing, if some one would make public the best entire plan for drying all kinds of fruit.

THE WHEAT CROP.—We regret to learn that, in portions of Union and Stanly Counties, the rust has made its appearance among the wheat. A very large crop has been sown throughout the State, and we had hoped for a good crop. It is greatly needed in the State. We hope the cool weather will prevent the progress of rust.

CRABTREE OUTDONE.—In our issue of the 7th we boasted that Crabtree Precinct, in Yancey County, voted 63 white votes and not one of them for the Radical ticket.

This, we thought, was the whitest place in Western North Carolina, but Smith's Bridge in Macon County has beat that record twenty-five votes. At that precinct there were cast eighty eight clear, unadulterated white votes, and not a single one for the negro equality ticket.

Franklin, also, in the same County, presents as fair if not the fairest face of any precinct in these Mountains, except the two above mentioned and Eastatow Ford. Out of 275 votes cast at that place, only about Fifteen were for the Radical Constitution and candidates.

A friend writing to us says: "I enter Eastatow Ford precinct, in Transylvania County, against your Yancey Crabtree, or anywhere else, for the white ticket. That precinct gave 64 or 65 straight Conservative votes against ratification and none for it.—Eastatow Ford is immediately on the Bank of French Broad river, near the three forks. On the third day of the election, they captured a deer in the river, near the polls, and had it barbecued for the occasion. The best political feeling prevailed, although many present had, until a short time previous, been active members of the U. L. A., which is now considered a dead dog in that region."

It will thus be seen that there are many uncontaminated spots in these mountain wilds, where respectable white men may enjoy social and political intercourse with all around them. It is also a singular fact that those precincts are in the midst of the best lands, the most beautiful scenes and delightful climate of Western North Carolina. We are now doubtful where to buy our farm (?) —Asheville News.

IMPEACHMENT.—The Managers are said to be much at fault what course to pursue in respect to impeachment. It is said that General Butler is of opinion that the best course is to take the vote on Tuesday, as fixed by the present order of the Senate, with a view to separate the impeachment sheep from the non impeachment goats.—Others advocate a postponement, so as to hold the sword over the President's head with a view to coerce his action; and others still propose a new or twelfth article, on which they will have to vote the carpet-bag Senators from the South about to be brought in under Mr. Trumbull's auspices. Some of the Radicals affirm and protest that impeachment is not dead, but only sleepeth until Tuesday next, when the second article, say they, is sure to be carried. But the almost unanimous opinion is that impeachment has utterly failed, and this opinion was more strongly entertained yesterday than on any previous occasion. This idea has induced many to drop Mr. Wade, upon the popular theory of assisting a man in his progress down hill. The opinion of good judges is that the future policy of the impeachers will depend largely on the development at Chicago, where great efforts are being made to smother up the differences in the Republican party.—Nat. Intel., 22d.

IMPEACHMENT DEVELOPMENTS—GENERAL GRANT AND SENATOR ROSS.—The Washington correspondents say that Gen. Grant has been laboring to get the President convicted and removed, and one of the reports is that he visited Senator Ross as late as twelve o'clock last Friday night—the night before the vote was taken in the Senate on impeachment—for the purpose of trying the power of persuasion upon the Senator. If this be true Gen. Grant has brought disgrace upon his name and the high position he holds, in the estimation of all who love fair play and justice. His great military fame will not save him from the odium of such conduct. The reports are so direct and circumstantial that he cannot escape the consequences unless he publicly declares they are not true. What does Gen. Grant say? Has he been using his influence upon members of the High Court of Impeachment to force a verdict of conviction against the President of the United States? Let us have the truth.—N. Y. Herald.

"A wet May," says an old saw, "makes plenty of hay," which is some slight consolation.

Correspondence of the Sentinel.

BOONE, WATAUGA CO., N. C., May 16.

Editors of the Sentinel:—I have not, even up to this late date, been able to learn, with accuracy, the result of the recent election in this county. The contest has been very close. It is understood, however, that there is from three to six majority in favor of the ratification of "Fowles' Konstitution," and that Lewis B. Banner, scallawag, is elected over A. C. Farthing, Conservative, by about 8 votes, to the House of Representatives.—The mongrels have also elected the Register, Treasurer and four Commissioners. The following Conservatives are elected, unless a different result is brought about, when the final counting is done, viz: John Horton, Sheriff; J. B. Todd, Clerk; Stephen Williams, Coroner; Nathan Horton, Surveyor, and Wm. F. Shull, Commissioner. We certainly could have elected all the county officers, had it not been for some injudicious nominations made by the county committee.

We were very much disappointed in the result in this county. The indications before the election were very encouraging, which led us to anticipate a splendid victory, but, alas! it seems that we know not on whom to depend. Many, very many, who were open mouthed in denouncing the infamous thing offered us, which is to take the place of our glorious old Constitution, and of the principles and policy, generally, of the mongrels, either voted to ratify or did not vote at all. Over one hundred who have registered, failed to vote. And then it seems that the Union League (so-called) retains more vitality as an organization than we expected.

I have been informed, by one of its members, that they were told, that all who had joined and did not vote the Radical ticket, in full, would be punished, and thus the stupid and ignorant were made to submit to the harness. There is also some complaint of fraud. At Sugar Grove precinct, there were several more tickets in the box than there were voters' names on the list, and so hard pressed were they that they even sent a couple of the truly "foil" to Mr. Smith's, a distance of about three miles, who declined going to the election himself but gave them his ballot, which they carried down and it was safely deposited in the box; so that, if necessary, it can be "handed down to de archives of gravity" as a new invention in the art of voting.

WATAUGA.

THE WAY TO MAKE SPEECHES.—The Congressional Globe of the Thirty-seventh Congress contains two speeches, one made in March and the other in April, by different gentlemen, which are duplicates, the Bohemian who undertook to supply them having sold the same speech to both purchasers. This is but a repetition, however, of what had happened in Philadelphia in 1798, when a ready writer furnished one of the "letters to constituents," in which Congressmen then sired their eloquence, to the Hon. John Clopton, of Henrico county, Va., and then sold a verbatim copy of the same epistle to the Hon. Thomas Claiborne, of the Brunswick district. Somehow the two letters were compared, and although each gentleman endeavored to show that the other one stole the letter from him, their constituents refused to re elect them either. —Balt. Commercial.

HOW NOW!—The New York Times says: "A dispatch from Washington says that one of the new Arkansas Senators had a good deal of influence in deciding Senator Ross to vote against impeachment. This fact, if it be one, will probably diminish the eagerness of the friends of impeachment to admit Arkansas into the Union and her Senators to their seats in time to vote on the remaining articles."

SENATOR FESSENDEN'S OPINION.—Senator Fessenden has received a letter from one of the Associate Justices of the Supreme Bench of Massachusetts, saying that his opinion in the impeachment case is sound in law, and will be sustained by half the Republican members of the bar of Boston. —N. Y. Times.

A BRIGHT LIGHT.—"Johnson, you say Brown was the man who robbed you?"—"Yes, sir." "Was it moonlight when it took place?" "No, sir." "Was it star light?" "No; it was so dark you couldn't see your hand afore your face." "Well, was there any light shining from any house near by?" "Why, no; there was not a house within a mile of us." "Well, then, if there was no moon, no starlight, no light from any house, and so dark you couldn't see your hand before your face, how is it that you are so positive that Brown was the man, and how did you see him?" "Why, you see, when the fellow struck me, de fire flew out of my eyes so bright dat you might see to pick up a pin."

GRANT MAKES A SPEECH.

WASHINGTON, May 23, M.

The following is Grant's speech to the serenaders, last night:

"Gentlemen: Being unaccustomed to public speaking, (original!) and without any desire to cultivate that power, it is impossible for me to find appropriate language to thank you for this demonstration. All that I can say is, that to whatever position I may be called, I shall try to discharge its duties with fidelity and honesty. Of my rectitude in the performance of public duties, you will have to judge for yourselves by my record before you."

EXTRAORDINARY PHENOMENON.

AUGUSTA, GA., May 23, M.

A dispatch from Lake City, Florida, says that a few days ago, nearly two acres on a farm in Hamilton Co. suddenly sunk to a depth of fifty feet from the surface,—the surrounding land filling with water and submerging the tops of the tallest trees. The ground is still sinking and now covers four acres. The streams and creeks in the surrounding country loosed themselves, which forced an outlet in this way.

These sinks have occurred before, but this is the largest and deepest known.

DAILY SENTINEL.

MONDAY, MAY 25, 1868.

YOUNG AGAIN.

I'm growing old, but what of that!
The Winter snows are in my hair,
And like an antiquated cat,
I love my fire and easy chair;

To sit and think, and read the news
Through pebbles twain that bridge my nose,
A malted stool beneath my shoes,
To coax the dull blood to my toes.

I'm growing old, but what of that!
Each fading sense, each twinge of pain,
But tells me with familiar chat
I'm coming to my youth again,

And bids me joy that change eterne
Revives, renews the meanest thing—
That life is born when grasses turn,
That out of the Winter leaps the Spring.

And such a Spring! Rejoice, oh me!
That age and mildew pass away,
That a brief cycle sets me free
To launch into unfading day.

The snow shall fade from out my hair,
Dim eyes and weakness flee with pain,
Heart's ease the wrinkled brow repair,
And all my youth come back again.

Night flames his wings and turns to day,
'Mid joy and bells the heart is born;
Though all things seem to pass away,
To all shall come another morn.

Him we call Death, with kindly hand
Plants all the daisies of the plain,
And when o'er me he waves his wand,
I shall renew my youth again.

"HARK FROM THE TOMBS" STORY.

This good yarn, for the truth of which "Sut" vouches, that is, "in the main like a man takes a wife," as he phrases it, has appeared in several papers lately in an incomplete form:

Many years ago, Major Wallace, while President of the East Tennessee and Georgia Railroad, chanced to be traveling over the line in a car, where there were but few passengers, seated opposite the stove, wrapped up in his shawl and meditations connected with the gigantic job, which he had undertaken, (building a railroad without money,) when night came on. Presently, in bounded a brakeman, loudly slamming the door behind him—one of those country geniuses, who, with a laudable ambition had, a day or two ago, abandoned the girls, the fiddle, and the ploughtail, to "climb in the world," to become a brakeman. He had been the king bee at all the neighborhood frolics, at the house raisings, at the corn-shuckings, and at the cross roads doggery fighting ground, and now he felt sure that he was a king bee on railroads. Strutting up to the stove he slammed down his lantern, kicked the mud from his huge boots on the foot-board of the seat, spit tobacco juice copiously and noisely on the hissing stove, crossed his muscular thighs, took a survey of the aforesaid boots, with harness leather straps, and then bethought himself of the "customer" sitting opposite, on whom he proceeded to bestow a lengthened, critical and saucy look, as though he doubted the "customer's" right to be in the coach at all. At length he sought knowledge:

"Whar are you gwine, Mister?"

"To Dalton, sir," responded the Major, quietly.

"Preacher, ain't you?"

"No, sir, I am not; but why do you ask?"

"Oh! nothing, only by —— I thought I saw 'Hark from the tombs' sticken' out all over you like measels. You know me, I reckon."

"I am sorry to say that I do not."

"Well, I'll jist be dam; why, whar the devil wer you raised?"

"At Maryville, East Tennessee."

"Oh! that exenses you, for if ever I hearn tell ove that settlement afore, I wish I may be durned, and I know every place, I das."

"You seem to be well acquainted with the place you are now occupying," remarked the Major, almost choking with efforts to suppress his laughter.

"What place do you mean, Mister? This yere red bainch kivered with the dried skins of cows' tongues, 'or my office?"

"I alluded to your office, and by the way, what is your position on this road?"

"Brakeman, by the jumpin' geminy. I tho't everybody know'd that; brakeman over the Yeast Tennessee and Georgia Railroad."

"Unfortunately I did not know it," replied the Major.

"Well, you'd dam soon foun' the fac' out if you'd a cut up any shines round yere, huggin wimmen, or cussin, or trying to steal anybody's carpet-bag, or talkin' sassy to the conductor or sich. Why I'd a chucked you head foremos' thru that winder, like dartin clapboards through the cracks ov a barn, for I mean to run this here train on morrill principles, I dus. An' you didn't know I was the brakeman ov this yere railroad?"

"Indeed, sir, I did not."

"Well, old Slideasy, all I hes got to say is that for a man ov your looks, you know less than anybody I ever saw. How do you manage to make a livin', enyhow?"

"I receive a salary; I am President of this road; Wallace is my name. But I have not the pleasure of knowing yours; will you be kind enough to inform me?"

All symptoms of "king bee" disappeared at this thunderbolt announcement, and in their stead, timid humility, crushed pride of place, a strong "get way" desire, and a most confounded hang dog look.

CIRCUMLOCUTION.

At Cincinnati, a few years since, an unsophisticated darkey waited upon a certain military gentleman with a bill of $19.15 for washing done at the camp hospital, which, after undergoing a rigorous scrutiny by the officer, was returned, with the following explanation, which the astonished son of Ethiopia listened to with an equal amount of wonder and perplexity:

"This bill," said the military gentleman, "will first have to be sent to the Quartermaster-General at Washington, and he will report to the Adjutant General, and he will lay it before the Secretary of War for his approval. The Adjutant being satisfied, it will be sent to the Auditor of State, who will approve of it and send it to the Secretary of the Treasury, who will send it to the United States Treasurer, who will at once dispatch an order to the Collector of this port to pay the bill."

The darkey relieved himself of a long-drawn sigh. "Then, massa," he remarked, "dat last gemblam you spoke of, pays for de washin', does he?"

"No," continued the other, "he will hand it to the Quartermaster; but as there is no such officer here at present, some proper person must be appointed by the Secretary of War, under the direction of the President, and his appointment must be approved by the Senate. Congress not being in session now, the commission cannot be issued until after it meets. When this commission is received, the Quartermaster will show it to the Collector; he will pay it, you giving your receipt."

The unfortunate negro first scratched his head, then shook it, and finally said:

"I guess I'll hab to let this washing slide, but it am the last job I does for Uncle Sam, shure."

GENERAL REMARKS.

Revenue stamps may be used indiscriminately upon any of the matters or things enumerated in Schedule B., except proprietary and playing card stamps, for which a special use has been provided.

Postage stamps cannot be used in payment of the duty chargeable on instruments.

It is the duty of the maker of an instrument to affix and cancel the stamp thereon. If he neglects to do so, the party for whom it is made, may stamp it before it is used; and, if used after the 30th of July, 1864, and used without a stamp, it cannot afterwards be effectually stamped. Any failure upon the part of the maker of an instrument, to appropriately stamp it, renders him liable to a penalty of two hundred dollars.

Suits are commenced in many States by other process than writ, viz: summons, warrants, publication, &c., in which case these, as the original process, severally require stamps.

Writs of scire facias are subject to stamp duty as original process.

The jurat of an affidavit, taken before a Justice of the Peace, Notary Public, or other officer duly authorized to take affidavits, is held to be a certificate, and is subject to a stamp duty of five cents, except when taken in suits of legal proceedings.

Certificates of loan in which there shall appear any printed or written evidence of an amount of money to be paid on demand or at any time designated, are subject to stamp duty as Promissory Notes.

The assignment of a mortgage is subject to the same duty as that imposed upon the original instrument; that is to say, for every sum of five hundred dollars, or any fractional part thereof, of the amount secured by the mortgage, at time of its assignment, there must be affixed a stamp or stamps, denoting a duty of five cents.

When two or more persons join in the execution of an instrument, the stamps to which this instrument is liable, under the law, may be affixed and cancelled by one of the parties,

In conveyance of real estate, the law provides that the stamp affixed must answer to the value of the estate or interest conveyed.

No stamp is required on warrant of attorney accompanying a bond or note, when such bond or note has affixed thereto the stamp or stamps denoting the duty required and whenever any bond or note is secured by mortgage, but one stamp duty is required on such papers, each stamp duty being the highest rates required for such instruments, or either of them. In such case a note or memorandum of the value or denomination of the stamp affixed should be made upon the margin or in the acknowledgment of the instrument which is not stamped.
